

Conversations in Ethics:

Treating the Patient in Front of You

A Continuing Medical Education Course
Presented by the Baptist Health Bioethics Department

Live, Virtual Conference | 1 Cat. 1

Wednesday, May 22, 2024

12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. EDT

The Conversations in Ethics lecture in May will cover information that will provide healthcare professionals with a patient's perspective on moral distress and the impact on ethical reasoning and compromising patient care and outcomes.

Faculty

Nora Jones, Ph.D., FCPP
Associate Director of Education
Associate Professor, Center for Urban Bioethics
Temple University
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Target Audience

Physicians, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners, Nurses, Social Workers, Respiratory Therapists, Clinical Chaplains, Pharmacists, Medical Students, Registered Dietitians and other interested healthcare professionals.

Learning Objectives

- Expand the set of tools for working with patients whose clinical course is negatively influenced by extra-clinical social and structural pressures.
- Identify patient perspectives on medical futility/non-beneficial care.
- Apply ethical reasoning to mitigate burnout.

In collaboration with the Florida Bioethics Network

Preregistration is required.
